Daily Readings Now available on Archtoronto Website

Parishioners throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto can now find the Canadian daily readings on their archdiocesan and parish websites.

Working with our publishing partners at Living with Christ/Novalis, the Archdiocese of Toronto has been able to include this new feature on the www.archtoronto.org website and all parish websites within the archdiocesan website network. There are currently 159 parishes in the network.

Securing access to these online readings for the day, thanks to the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops – including the First Reading, Second Reading (when appropriate), Psalm and Gospel Reading – is significant because the vast majority of daily readings found online are from the United States Lectionary. There are some key differences between the American and Canadian Lectionaries in translations, the arrangements of some readings and feast days, as well as some differences in the instructions for readers. By partnering with Living in Christ, we are ensuring website visitors will find the same readings they would hear in their local parish Mass.

The Daily Readings tab can be found under the Our Catholic Faith drop-down menu on the archdiocesan and parish websites within the archtoronto.org network.

Reactivation of the Social Justice Education Committee

The objective of the committee is to invite St. Dominic's parishioners to discuss important social issues that merit immediate action, such as the unabated environmental degradation. Following into the steps of the previous group, chaired by Tom McCarthy, we would like to continue with activities and discussions related to Pope Francis' encyclical:

"Laudato Si" ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

The content and format of this program would be the first job of the new SJEC. We invite, then, fellow parishioners interested in becoming members of the new SJEC to contact either:

Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." God asks us to give our lives. What treasures have been given to you to share with others in Christ's name? If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr.
