Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection from the desk of Fr. Terry

Beatitudes:

Jesus said, "blessed are you poor and blessed are you who hunger." When we talk about poverty, about being poor, it does not mean of material poverty. He certainly does not mean also that wealth and money are intrinsically evil and that we should work for material advancement in this world. However, there is a worse form of poverty than material poverty, it is loneliness, emptiness and being unloved. Jesus is challenging us to build a better world where there is justice and peace, no killings and exploitation, no cheating and suppression. Jesus knew what is being poor, being born in a manger, having to flee the persecution of Herod and at the end being crucified. He has gone through everything that is being said in these Beatitudes and given us the path that leads to being blessed.

Fr. Terry

Come and See Weekend – St. Augustine's Seminary March 15-17, 2019

March 15-17, 2019

 Many Catholic men consider the possibility of becoming a priest, but don't go beyond thinking about it because of the many questions they may have. Twice a year, the Office of Vocations offers a weekend live-in experience, at St. Augustine's Seminary, to help men discerning the priesthood get answers to questions they have, to meet seminarians, and to pray for continued assistance in knowing God's will. We call them Come and See Weekends, and they are great opportunities to assist in your discernment.
